COMMUNICATION AND PROFESSIONAL WRITING

Program: PROW
Credential: Ontario College Graduate Certificate
Delivery: Full-time
Work Integrated Learning: 1 Field Placement
Length: 2 semesters
Duration: 1 year
Effective: Fall 2024
Location: Barrie

Description

As a student in this program, you will focus on professionalizing your communication skills through intensive practical writing activities and the application of relevant theoretical content. You will plan, create, edit, and deliver messages for a range of audiences, purposes, and mediums, including print, social media, and web-based contexts. Through a combination of independent and collaborative learning, you will complete projects that provide experiential learning opportunities, including case studies, writing workshops, and project management assignments.
To initiate professional development and build the entrepreneurial skills required for industry and self-employment, you will gain real-life experience through participation in a placement, which is the first step in building your professional network and gaining practical experience for the future.

Career Opportunities

Graduates enhance their professional experience in fields that require advanced communication skills. Potential areas of employment include, but are not limited to, writing for social media and web-based environments, engineering, business, and social services, as well as within the public, private, and non-profit sectors. Graduates also may pursue careers as self-employed entrepreneurs.

Program Learning Outcomes

The graduate has reliably demonstrated the ability to:

1. compose messages that are clear, concise and error-free to address the needs of a specified audience and purpose;
2. produce content that applies the stylistic conventions of design, layout, and format for a given audience;
3. employ core editing styles and skills to support the stages of the content development process;
4. integrate credible sources with an applicable citation style to adhere to the principles of ethical information use;
5. provide a range of documents in a project cycle that address audience need;
6. apply a collaborative leadership style to the management of multifaceted projects from planning through to completion;
7. employ entrepreneurial and self-promotional strategies to identify and respond to new opportunities across the professional communication field;
8. apply environmentally friendly and cost-effective approaches when managing projects while meeting user needs;
9. use language and terminology that reflect the principles of equity, diversity and inclusion to create accessible content.
