BOOKKEEPING

Program: BOKP
Credential: Ontario College Certificate
Delivery: Full-time - online + Part-time - online
Length: 2 Semesters
Duration: 1 Year
Effective: Fall 2025, Winter 2026, Summer 2026
Location: Online

Description

Students learn the processes associated with maintaining detailed, day-to-day records of a business's financial transactions. These transactions include sales, purchases, payroll, collection of accounts receivable, payment of bills, paying taxes, and more. Students learn how to record, report and manage financial transactions in order to assist management personnel in making key operating, investing and financing decisions. The program consists of courses that include both theory and computer application.

Career Opportunities

Bookkeeping services are needed in various administrative roles across all organizations, both in profit, non-profit and government organizations. Furthermore, there are self-employment opportunities offering bookkeeping services to the business community.

Program Learning Outcomes

The graduate has reliably demonstrated the ability to:

1. complete bookkeeping functions within the accounting cycle including accounts receivables, payables, inventory, and banking using relevant software and operating systems;
2. produce financial statements and reports for proprietorships, partnerships, and corporations using generally accepted accounting principles;
3. prepare individual income tax returns in compliance with relevant legislation and regulations using tax preparation software;
4. develop a plan to support the management needs of the bookkeeping function including planning, forecasting, budgeting cost and revenue management;
5. use spreadsheet and database programs, including Excel to create and produce reports for business analysis, identification of trends and decision-making;
6. employ business, entrepreneurial, and bookkeeping skills to launch or support the operation of a new business venture;
7. use payroll recording-keeping practices and procedures within the requirements and regulations for employee compensation.

External Recognition

Students have the opportunity to become members of the Certified Professional Bookkeepers of Canada (CPB Canada). Membership and certification is awarded by CPB Canada and the requirements are set by them not Georgian College. Additional information can be found at: https://cpbcan.ca/
